- Draft legal documents, and have client-facing appointments
- Develop legal strategies for disputes
- Build client relationships and networks

What Sets This Role Apart

- Clear path for career progression, including equity for the right person
- Support for training and professional development
- A firm with deep ties to the Dubbo and Western NSW community
- Diverse client base: individuals and large and small businesses and corporates
- Friendly, inclusive workplace culture with an assistant for administrative tasks
- CLE and practising certificate fees paid
- Modern legal technology provided

- Opportunity to shape your practice and grow your expertise
- Flexible work arrangements for the right candidate

What You Need

- NSW Practising Certificate (or eligibility)
- 2+ years PAE preferred, all experience levels considered
- Organised, problem-solver, high attention to detail
- Client-focused, with strong interpersonal skills
- Team player, positive workplace contributor
- Clear communicator, written and verbal
- Experience with Microsoft Office, LEAP or Smokeball (advantageous but not essential)

Make the Change
